

PhD Conference in Historical Studies: Lund Network – York – Bielefeld

Lund University / University of York / Bielefeld University

31 May – 2 June 2023, Bielefeld University

Programme

PhD Conference in Historical Studies: Lund Network – York - Bielefeld

Bielefeld University, Building X B2-103 (BGHS)

31 May – 2 June 2023

Wednesday 31 May 2023 Arrival

16:00 Reception, coffee (BGHS Lounge)

17:00-18:00 Three parallel workshops

X-B2-103: Workshop 1 with Per-Anders Rudling (Lund University): Undigested Past: The Holocaust in the Historical Culture of the Ukrainian Diaspora

X-B2-105: Workshop 2 with Lawrence Black (University of York): Interdisciplinary Work: What to Do, What Not to Do

X-A2-105: Workshop 3 with Antje Flüchter (Bielefeld University): Practices of Comparing

18:45 Dinner: Café im Bürgerpark, Wertherstraße 88 (<https://cafe-restaurant-imbuergerpark.de/>)

Thursday 01 June 2023

9:00 Welcome (X B2-103)

9:30-11:00 Three parallel panels doctoral researchers (3 x 3)

X B2-103: Chair: Elizabeth Spencer (University of York)

Raoul Manuel Palm (Bielefeld University): The White World Upside Down. The Change of Racial Comparison Practices During and After the Haitian Revolution (1791 – 1804)

Daria Lynch (University of York): Decolonising “Britishness”: York’s Heritage Industry and the Silencing of Alternative Heritage Narratives

Franklin Martínez (Linnaeus University): Cowlonisation: Cattle and the Construction of the Landscapes of Mexico, 1520–1590

X B2-105: Chair: Martina Kessel (Bielefeld University)

Séverine Angers (University of York): How sleep the brave who sink to rest! Familial Memorialization of Fallen Soldiers in Britain during the Napoleonic Wars

Carolin Kaiser (Bielefeld University): Masculinities in the German military between 1921 and 1935

Rebecka Dahlkvist (University of Gothenburg): Fatherly Dispositions. Fathers and the Concept of Character in Sweden c. 1900–1950

X A2-105: Chair: Lina Sturfelt (Lund University)

Mengjin Xue (University of York): The Influence of Indirect Translation on Chinese Feminist Thought: Western Translation Through Japanese, 1896-1949

Sarah Elisabeth Klode (Bielefeld University): Practices of Comparing in Supplier Competition and Customer Orientation: The American and the German Automotive Industry in the 20th Century

Fannie Frederikke Baden (Lund University): Why does it Glow? Visualisation Techniques and Representations of Radioactivity in Materia

11:00-11:30 Coffee

11:30-13:00 Two parallel panels doctoral researchers (2 x 3)

X B2-103: Chair: Cecilia Riving (Lund University)

Martin Englund (Södertörn University): We, the Expelled: Historical Experiences Among the Refugees that Came to Sweden from Poland 1967–1972 due to the Antisemitic Campaign

Molly Uhlmann Lindberg (Lund University): “We are printing real books!” Publishing Practices in the Early Age of Print-on-Demand

Joseph Gascoigne (University of York): The Government of Antigua vs The Privy Council: A history of the judiciary as the last defence of constitutional rights in the Commonwealth Caribbean.

X B2-105: Chair: Kajsa Weber (Lund University) (11:30-13:30)

Yannick de Raaf (University of Gothenburg): The Construction of the Menelaion Mansions: An Energetics Approach

Jacob Bohé (Bielefeld University): Value and Valuation. Concepts of Values and Practices of Valuation on the German Real Estate Market

Keely Hayes-Davies (University of York): Pageantry, Propaganda, or Pastime? Reconstructing Progresses and the Itinerary of Henry VIII

Karin Jedeberg (Lund University): Anti-abortion in Scandinavia: Social Movements and the Fight Against Abortion on Demand, c. 1970–2010.

13:00/13.30 Lunch (Mensa)

14:00-15:00 Free time on campus; Planning meeting faculties

15:00 Coffee

16:15-18:00 Keynote Henrik Rosengren (Lund University):

“Music, Memory and ‘Massacre Music’. The Memory of the Holocaust in Art Music in the Nordic Countries.” (X B2-103)

18:45 Dinner: NUMA, Obernstraße 26 (<http://www.numa.de>)

Friday 02 June 2023 Departure