

11th Peace and Conflict Talk

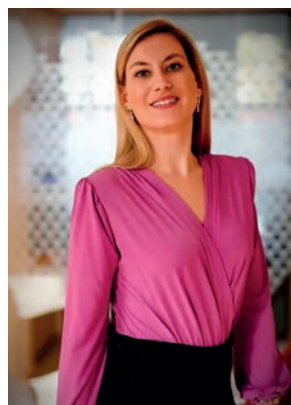

The Current Situation in Israel: Perspectives from a Peace Psychologist

Tuesday, 17/10/23 - 14:00

Most of the world is currently watching the terrorist attacks by Hamas in Israel with frightened despair. Dr. Nadine Knab is a peace psychologist currently working and living in Tel Aviv, Israel, and will provide insights into the situation from her perspective. Her research interests include psychology and international relations, helping behaviour and solidarity-based collective action, interventions to transform/prevent social conflict. She is chair of the German Peace Psychology Association and one of the editors of a recently published handbook of peace psychology. Following her brief presentation, we plan to have a respectful and prudent exchange.

Speaker: Dr. Nadine Knab
Tel Aviv University

Chair: Dr. Jens Hellmann

Press or scan QR
Code to get to zoom:

