

The faculty of sociology has the following job opening:

Research Position (Postdoc)

ID: Wiss24381

- Start: as soon as possible
- fulltime
- salary according to Remuneration level 13 TV-L
- fixed-term

The Faculty of Sociology, Working Group (WG) "German and Transnational Social Policy" (Prof. Dr. Alexandra Kaasch), is looking for a post-doctoral researcher.

Your Tasks

- independent research in the area of global social policy and governance, collaboration in joint research activities (specifically: collaboration in project CRC1342 B12 (in collaboration with Bremen University), amongst other things preparation of the case study on the World Bank), publication projects and research proposals of the WG (70 %)
- teaching in the area of social policy and political science/international relations to the extent of 4 LVS and supervision of students (20 %)
- participation in the organisation of the working group, academic self-administration and general university administration (10 %)

Employment is conducive to academic qualification.

We offer

- salary according to Remuneration level 13 TV-L
- fixed-term (limited until 21.11.2024) (§ 14 (1) No. 3 of the TzBfG i. c. w. § 21 BEEG initially for the duration of the maternity leave of the jobholder, at the latest until 21.11.2024 an

Your Profile

We expect

- scientific university degree (MA, Magister, Diploma, First State Examination or equivalent) in political science, sociology, or equivalent subject with a particular focus on social policy in a global context
- completed PhD in political science, sociology, or equivalent subject with a particular focus on social policy in a global context
- extensive knowledge in and publications on issues of global social policy and governance
- excellent English skills (oral and written)
- independent, responsible and committed work
- excellent organisational, communicative and coordinating skills
- collaborative, team-oriented working style

Preferred experience and skills

- networks with relevant academic and political stakeholders in the area of research, including academic and political institutions and international organisations extension for the possible subsequent parental leave probably until 25.03.2025 is planned)

- fulltime
- internal and external training opportunities
- variety of health, consulting and prevention services
- reconcilability of family and work
- good transport connection
- supplementary company pension
- collegial working environment
- open and pleasant working atmosphere

- interest in pursuing an academic career
- experience in editing academic publications (e.g. edited volumes, editorial activities in academic journals)
- experience in third-party research grant applications

Application Procedure

We are looking forward to receiving your application. To apply, please preferably use our online form via the application button below.

application deadline: 31.08.2024

APPLY NOW

Contact

Prof. Dr. Alexandra Kaasch
alexandra.kaasch@uni-bielefeld.de

Postal Address

Universität Bielefeld
Fakultät für Soziologie
Prof. Dr. Alexandra Kaasch
Postfach 10 01 31
33501 Bielefeld

Bielefeld University has received a number of awards for its achievements as an equal-opportunity employer and has been recognized as a family-friendly university. The university welcomes applications from women. This is particularly true with regard both to academic and technical posts as well as positions in information technology as well as the skilled crafts and trades. Applications are handled according to the provisions of the state statutes on equal opportunity. Applications from suitably qualified handicapped and severely handicapped persons are explicitly encouraged.

At Bielefeld University on request positions can be carried out with reduced working hours as long as this does not conflict with official needs.

