

Job advertisement

1 student research assistant (WHF), up to 10h/week until December 2025

The project Soziale Sicherung im Krisenmodus (SoSiKri; Social Security in Crisis Mode) funded by the Fördernetzwerk Interdisziplinäre Sozialpolitikforschung (FIS)/Bundesministerium für Arbeit und Soziales (BMAS) is looking for a research assistant (with BA degree), to support the project. Working hours are up to 10h/week; until December 2025. The project is led by Dr John Berten and Prof. Dr. Alexandra Kaasch. You will be linked to the AG "German and Transnational Social Policy", Prof. Dr. Alexandra Kaasch, Faculty of Sociology. Start date: as soon as possible.

Requirements:

- BA in a social policy related field (e.g. political science, sociology, law, history, human geography)
- Very good command of English, editing skills
- At least basic knowledge of and interest in the field of (eco-)social policy
- Excellent organisational skills
- Interest in public relations (support in the development of blog posts, podcasts, etc)
- Professional communication skills

Your tasks:

Supporting the research team with various tasks including

- Searching and organising literature
- Data collection and analysis
- Support in the preparation of presentations and publications
- Support in public outreach activities of the project

For further details please contact: Dr John Berten
(john.berten@uni-bielefeld.de).

Excluded from application are applicants who have already concluded a service contract for the a/m period.

Please send your application (letter of motivation, CV, certificates) in one single pdf document until 03.02.2024 (at the latest) to sekretariat.kaasch@uni-bielefeld.de.